At this Holiday time, may we be grateful for our sobriety and continue to extend the hand and the love of A.A. to the alcoholic who still suffers. Having left the darkness behind us, may we look toward the light of the future with gratitude and hope, sharing in the fellowship of the spirit.

We wish each of you a sober and Happy Holiday Season. May God be with You All.

Lorain Inter-Group Central Office Board of Directors, Staff, Advisory Board and Committees

The Holidays

Marty S, Hagerstown Group

It's that time of year again when coping with the holidays seems to be a popular topic of discussion at meetings. Loneliness and depression are cited as difficult problems we alcoholics must contend with at this time of year. Judging from the media, depression at the holidays is a malady not confined to alcoholics, and numerous articles are often found in print media with suggestions on how to handle the holiday time.

I remember my first holiday time in sobriety. It was 1967, and I was young, only six months sober, and scared to death about getting through this time without drinking. Office parties, vendors and suppliers sending bottles of booze as presents, invitations from family members (those who were still speaking to me), and neighborhood gatherings were to be expected. How could I cope with all that alcohol flowing freely?

My friend, Vic, and the other members of the Wednesday night St. David's group were the first to come to my rescue. They reminded me that ANY holiday was simply another 24-hour period and that we do this one day at a time. Vic also strongly suggested, as only he could, that I get to as many meetings as possible over this time period. Finally, I was reminded that I needed to concentrate on being grateful for the blessings of the program I had been freely given. It was enough to get me through.

Since then, I have come to realize that we have a multitude of tools available to us to cope with the depression, loneliness, and fear we experience, not only during the holidays, but all through the year.

There is, of course, the fellowship of other sober members of the program. Several groups that have permanent meeting sites stay open 24 hours a day all through the holidays.

Additionally, there are usually social gatherings of sober AAs having open house parties, groups sponsoring dances, and other opportunities to be surrounded by sober members of AA.

Finally, this time of year also gives us a chance to do some twelfth-step work, since lonely and depressed active alcoholics may be at last ready to hear the marvelous message of Alcoholics Anonymous and our program of recovery — one day at a time!

Concepts 12: The Conference shall observe the spirit of A.A. Tradition, taking care that it never becomes the perilous wealth or power; that sufficient operating funds and reserve be its prudent financial principle; that it place none of its members in a position of unqualified authority over others; that it reach all important decisions, vote, and, whenever possible, by substantial unanimity; that its actions never be personally punitive nor an incitement to public controversy; that it never perform acts of government, and that, like the Society it serves, it will always remain democratic in thought and action.

Step 12: Having had a spiritual awakening as the result of these Steps, we tried to carry this message to alcoholics, and to practice these principles in all our affairs.

Promise 12: We will suddenly realize that God is doing for us what we could not do for ourselves.

Tradition 12: Anonymity is the spiritual foundation of all our traditions, ever reminding us to place principles before personalities.

To Lorain County AA's: Bill A and Debbie H would like to thank all for prayers, support and cards received over the last few months.

Young People's Committee is in need of support. There will be an open committee meeting on Dec. 13 for anyone who would like to see how the committee works or to get active. Please contact John Flores at (440) 308-5421 for information or questions.
