“First Things First”

Singleness of Purpose:

In the May 2004 Grapevine, David F. of NY says: Singleness of purpose has become the rallying cry for those who want to ban all talk of drugs at AA meetings, limit how you identify yourself, limit how you name your meeting..., and in general treat drugs and dual addiction as irrelevant "outside issues." It has created deep divisions within the Fellowship and caused AA groups in many parts of the country to become more doctrinaire, less friendly, less attractive, and less helpful.

Those who cry out for a return to our singleness of purpose are concerned that the message may be diluted or subverted by a perceived influx of non-alcoholics into our meetings. In particular they often point to drug addicts believing that somehow by allowing drug addicts into Alcoholics Anonymous we will lose what has been built in the last seventy plus years.

In the Twelve and Twelve Bill uses the phrase singleness of purpose only once, in Tradition Five. The unique ability of each A.A. to identify himself with, and bring recovery to, the newcomer in no way depends upon his learning, eloquence, or on any special individual skills. The only thing that matters is that he is an alcoholic who has found a key to sobriety. These legacies of suffering and of recovery are easily passed among alcoholics, one to the other. This is our gift from god, and its bestowal upon others like us is the one aim that today animates A.A.'s all around the globe. There is another reason for this singleness of purpose.

He continues to say that we must give it away to keep it. I understand Bill to be saying that singleness of purpose is what we do - not who we are. We do one thing and one thing only - we carry the message of recovery from alcoholism. Nowhere can I find Bill setting limits on what kind of alcoholic should hear the message.

The earliest reference to singleness of purpose I found was in the January, 1945 edition of the Grapevine. The piece was written by Frank S. of Los Angeles who says, speaking of Bill, He taught us that only those have a right to A.A. who use it with the singleness of purpose for which it was founded and handed to us. He taught us that those whose ideas veer from A.A. ideals get off the beam and, sooner or later, fail in sobriety when they begin using substitutes instead of "practicing A.A. principles in all our affairs."

What Frank and his group learned is simple - carry one message and one message only -recovery from alcoholism through the practice of the twelve steps. Failure to adhere to the steps and traditions, the A.A. ideals Frank refers to, risks a fall from sobriety.

I've never heard a cry to get the AI-Anons out of A.A. or the overeaters and A.C.O.A.s, certainly not the smokers. There's something about those pesky drug addicts - but it's not really that they're drug addicts. Instead, it's that they dare to mention drugs.

And why is that? Apparently it's because drugs and drug addiction are outside issues. A point I won't disagree with. But wait, we, the fellowship, have no opinion on outside issues - or did I mis-read Tradition Ten.

This is not a new issue. In 1987 the General Service Conference approved the blue closed meeting statement which was seen as a compromise. You can be an A.A. member as long as you only discuss alcoholism. It was the first attempt by the Conference to limit what is said at a meeting. The use of the card is optional and it asks that we limit our comments to those issues as they relate to alcoholism. So what's an issue that relates to alcoholism?

Would it be things like relationships, marriage, divorce, employment, money, traffic, kids or parents. Those sound a lot like outside issues to me. None of them are alcoholism but they must relate to the disease because I hear about them all the time. So why are drugs different? Many of us did drugs at one time or another. Certainly I did drugs. And I have to believe that since I drank through my relationships, when driving, at work and while I did drugs, they all must relate to my alcoholism and maybe even to yours. But even if you never did a drug, whose alcoholism do my comments need to relate to - yours or mine?

In 1985, in his closing remarks at the General Service Conference, Bob P, a retiring GSO senior advisor and former general manager, discussed the issue. He said the threat to AA was not from the outside, not from "treatment centers or professionals in the field... or young people or the dually-addicted or even the druggies trying to come to our closed meetings." He said the threat was from within.

"If you were to ask me what is the greatest danger facing Alcoholics Anonymous today, I would have to answer: the growing rigidity that is so apparent to me and many others. The increasing demand for absolute answers to a nit-picking questions, Pressure for GSO to 'enforce' our Traditions, Screening alcoholics at closed meetings..., Laying more and more rules on groups and members."

In the Twelve and Twelve Bill begins his discussion of Tradition Three this way: This Tradition is packed with meaning. For A.A. is really saying to every serious drinker, "You are an A.A. member if you say so. You can declare yourself in; nobody can keep you out. No matter who you are, no matter how low you've gone, no matter how grave your emotional complications - even your crimes - we still can't deny you A.A. We don't want to keep you out. We aren't a bit afraid you'll harm us, never mind how twisted or violent you may be. We just want to be sure that you get the same great chance for sobriety that we've had. So you're an A.A. member the minute you declare yourself."

Thank You All

Once again the A.A. community has come through for the kids. It was blizzard conditions and still the volunteers showed up. We gave 181 kids toy, treats, and a Christmas they might not have had. That is not including the 31 kids at various shelters. So in all we helped 212 kids. That is something we think Lorain county A.A. can be proud of. We have over $ 3,500 to start buying toys, crafts and pass out toys for next year. That is great!!! All we can say to you is thank you. The 50/50 was $1,659 this year. Thanks to all who sold tickets. Thanks to the groups for there donations and all there help.

We Love You All For What You Do

Brenda, Patti & Troy Smith

Concepts 2: The General Service Conference of A.A. has become, for nearly every practical purpose, the active voice and the effective conscience of our whole Society in its world affairs.

Step 2: Came to believe that a Power greater than ourselves could restore us to sanity.

Promise 2: We will not regret the past nor wish to shut the door on it.

Tradition 2: For our group purpose there is but one ultimate authority-a loving God as He may express Himself in our group conscience. Our leaders are but trusted servants; they do not govern. Personal recovery depends upon A.A. Unity.
