“Easy Does It”

Paradox #1: Surrender

We SURRENDER TO WIN.

On the face of it, surrendering certainly does not seem like winning. But it is in AA. Only after we have come to the end of our rope, hit a stone wall in some aspect of our lives beyond which we can go no further; only when we hit "bottom" in despair and surrender, can we accomplish sobriety, which we could never accomplish before. We must, and we do, surrender in order to win.

c.2003 AAWS, Experience, Strength and Hope, pp. 155-156
With permission, Alcoholics Anonymous World Services, Inc.

Paradox #2

We GIVE AWAY TO KEEP.

That seems absurd and untrue. How can you keep anything if you give it away? But in order to keep whatever it is we get in AA, we must go about giving it away to others, for no fees or rewards of any kind. When we cannot afford to give away what we have received so freely in AA, we had better get ready for our next "drunk." It will happen every time. We've got to continue to give it away in order to keep it.

c.2003 AAWS, Experience, Strength and Hope, p.156
With permission, Alcoholics Anonymous World Services, Inc.

Paradox #3

We SUFFER TO GET WELL.

There is no way to escape the terrible suffering of remorse and regret and shame and embarrassment which starts us on the road to getting well from our affliction. There is no new way to shake out a hang-over. It's painful. And for us, necessarily so . . . We suffer to get well.

The Second Annual Porky Pig Roast was a Great successes, it made a profit of 1,554.00 for the Lorain Central Office. The 50/50 raffle, gave the winner Amy N., from Grafton, a prize of $508.00 This is the second year in a row that the Pig Roast was a Sellout. We would like to thank all those that attended the Pig Roast and the workers that made it possible , the Bands that played at the Pig Roast, Blind Sides, and 1/2 Measurers who made it a fun time.. We hope to see you there next year. God Bless and thank you all.

The Dark Side:

Have you ever gone outside at night and looked closely at the new moon? Or looked through a telescope at the moon when it was crescent shaped? Although what we see is a bright slice, we know there's more. Even when the moon is full and lights the night sky, there's a dark side to the moon.

There's a dark side to us too. We all experience jealousy, envy, bitterness, resentment. How about neediness? Ugh. Who wants to shine a light on that?

What about all those fears? Fear of failure, fear of success, fear of intimacy, fear of going broke, fear of the unknown, fear of growing old, fear of being alone, fear of being with someone, fear of losing control.

Then there are other parts of us that we would prefer to keep darkened and out of sight, parts such as greed, dishonesty, intolerance, disgust, hatred. Although some people have no problem showing anger, others of us prefer to keep that out of sight too. And what about our manipulative part? Who wants anyone to see that?

Some of us may even consider the dark side of ourselves forbidden. We may refuse to acknowledge it exists because we believe it's wrong. Not acknowledging our dark side doesn't wish it out of existence, any more than not seeing the dark side of the moon makes it disappear.

Most sane people agree that they don't want to be controlled by their dark side. We don't want parts of ourselves - jealousy, neediness, and greed - to control our behaviors. But when we don't acknowledge these emotions and traits, they can gain control. The more we try to repress something, the more it fights for its life.

Don't be afraid. Shine a light on that dark part. At least look at it briefly. Acknowledge it's there. Take some of the pressure off. Let yourself be well rounded, instead of one-dimensional. We don't just have a light side, a bright side. Nobody is always loving, always kind, always generous, and always thoughtful.

Thought to Ponder . . . Nothing is so bad that a drink won't make worse.

• • Today I will stay free of self-pity so I can receive God's strength. • •

Easy Does It

Advisory Board Meeting: The meeting will be held at 6:30 PM on the 3rd. Thursday of the month, at the Central Office. (Sept 20th., 2007)

Notice to All Group Secarities: When I became a secretary of my Home Group I was told that I had to attend the Lorain Central Office Meeting the first Sunday of the month at 12:30 PM at the Central Office. So that I would be aware of what was going on in Alcoholics Anonymous in Lorain County. I did that for the three years, that I was secretary of the group. We have 112 groups in Lorain County and at the meetings we only get about 3 secretaries or group members at each meeting. When you attend this meeting you can purchase the literature for your group, get the latest meeting schedule, get copies of the LiveWire, help with your advice on solving some of the problems effecting A.A. in Lorain County. If you are the secretary of your group please attend the meeting yourself or send a representative from your home group to the meeting. We hope to see you at the next Central Office Meeting or someone from your home group. (Russ W.)

Quote of the Week: "There are only two times when you should go to a meeting - when you feel like going, and when you don't feel like going.

It's hard living with a disease that tells me I don't have it. When I'm in between meetings and life is busy, it's easy for me to think of going to a meeting as an imposition. "I'm fine. I don't want to drink, haven't in years, and I'm too busy for a meeting!" That kind of thinking can get me into big trouble.

One of the most valuable lessons I've learned in the program is to take contrary action to what my head is telling me. In fact I've learned that when my head is telling me I don't need a meeting, it actually means that I REALLY need one. And without exception, I always feel better when I go.

The only thing an alcoholic does in moderation is work the steps. It's cunning, baffling and powerful when my head tells me not to do something that makes me feel better. This is why I just have to take the action and do it anyway. So for me, there are only two times when I should go to a meeting - when I feel like it and when I don't.

Lorain Central Office 50/50 Raffle Winner: Troy S.. $118.00, Sold by C/O. Just another way you can Help support the Central Office. Buy a TICKET from any Advisory Board Member.

Concepts 9: Good service leadership at all levels is indispensable for our future functioning and safety. Primary world service leadership, once exercised by the founders, must necessarily be assumed by the trustees.

Step 9: Made direct amends to such people wherever possible, except when to do so would injure them or others.

Promise 9: Our whole attitude and outlook upon life will change.

Tradition 9: A.A. As such, ought never be organized; But we may create service boards or committees directly responsible to those they serve.

Prayer for the Day: I pray that I may be honest with myself, and that I will continue • with the help of God and my friends • to try to get to know the real me. May I know that I cannot suddenly be a pulled-together, totally defined, completely consistent personality; it may take a while to develop into that personality, to work out my values and my priorities. May I know now that I have a good start on being who I want to be.

Thought to Ponder . . ."Prayer doesn't always change things for you; But it does change you for things." (Oswald Chambers)
